McAdoo in Limelight Because of Presidential Candidate Possibilites

GIVES OUT INTERVIEW

Speaks to Railroad Men and at Alhambra Theatre

William Gibbs McAdoo, former director-general of railroads and secretary of the treasury, arrived in Ogden at 2.20 o'clock today and was taken diectly to the Woodmen's hall on Washington avenue, where he delivered a brief address to the members of the four brotherhoods of railroad men. Following his address there he was taken to the Alhambra theatre, where he also spoke.

In an interview with Mr. McAdoo on the way from the train he ex-pressed chagrin and regret that what he termed as permittous propaganda he termed as perfictors propaganda had been circulated to the effect that he had been sick recently and would not be able to deliver the speeches scheduled for him in Ulah.

Third Degree All Night The Esch-Cummins bill, I have al ways said and I still maintain was one of the poorest pieces of legislation that was ever foisted on the American public.

CLEVELAND. Ohio. Oct 26.—
Henry J. Burns was booked on a charge of murder here today charged with killing his third wife, whose mulliated body was found in a shallow grave in the woods of Mentor Marsh late Wednesday afternoon.

Burns, who lives in Cleveland, was formally charged with first degree murder after an all night grilling here by Detective Lieutenant Charles Nevel Burns admits he was in the woods near the scene of the killing just before the body was found, and that he saw his wife's blood stained clothing scattered about on the grass, but denies all knowledge of the crime, according to the police.

HIS HANDS TORN

The backs of his hands were torn but he told police the wounds were sustained when he fell from a tree.

He was taken into custody late Wednesday on information furnished by Lake county authorities and for eight hours was subject to a "third degree" grilling at police headquarters but no confession was wrung from him.

Jost before the murder charge was placed against him, he was confronted with a photograph of his wife, Mrs. Hazel Burns. 29. taken as she lay in the morgue at Painesville, her face crushed and torn her nose fractured and her right eye marked by a bullet hole.

NEAR TO COLLAPSE

The prisoner clasped his hands over his eyes, shrank back in his chair and cried out.

"My God, I wish I was where she is now."

Burns admitted his third wife, the victim of the murder, had accused him of paying attention to other women, police declare.

Those Awful Shrieks Haunt Me" Eye Witness Declares

STILL NO ARRESTS

Special Prosecutor Declares Grand Jury Must Sift Facts

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 26. -Mrs. Jane Gibson, pig raiser, who claims to have witnessed the murder of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills today told a newspaperman that she had identified the man who she says shot the rector, as well as identifying the women who she asserts was with the slayer.

Mrs. Gibson, who was on the Phillips farm the night of the double murder, looking for corn thieves, and who claims to have heard the slayer's name called by his woman companion, said that she did not know the identity of the slayer at the time, but that she recently had recognized him in the prosecutor's office in New Brunswick. SHE KNOWS WOMEN.

Mrs. Gibson, who it was learned.
Wednesday had told the authorities the name of the slayer's companion, said today that she had once met her at a rummage sale and instantly had recognized her at the scene of the murder on the Phillips farm. She added that she had seen her since the double killing and was sure of her recognition. ecognition.
Wilbur A. Mott, special prosecutor in charge of the case was quoted to the effect that there might be an ar-rest within an hour. But Mr. Mott idded to his quoted utterance a phrase non ne says he used in the first in dance-'or in two weeks. He intimated, although he would not say definitely, that no arrest would be made until the case has been laid before the Somerset county grand jur-and an indictment-or indictmentsreturned He declined to say when he would go before that body.

While it was true, Mr. Mott said.

that Mrs. Gibson, farmer and pig-rais-er, had signed a statement, that document did not contain anything else she had not already told the authorities, and he could see no need at present for an immediate arrest. He declared, however, that he was ready to order one or several arrests without waiting for grand juy action if circumstances made haste advisable. SOME SKEPTICISM.

Mr. Mott expressed skepticism as to Mrs. Gibson's identification in her statement of the Rev. Edward Wheel-or Hall-victim with Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills of the slayer's furybecause that identification was made on the strength of a photograph. Mrs. Gibson never had seen the rector be-fore the night of the shooting, he said. Asked whether Mrs. Gibson ever before had seen the woman she identi-fied as being present at the shooting, and who, she declared, had screamed the name of a man long under suspi-cion, he declined to answer.

As soon as Mrs. Gibson's statement had been obtained, Detective Masch took it to Mr. Mott at Newark, while Colonel Schwarz Kopf, head of the state police, started about the same time for the Manhattan police headnot be learned. It was recalled however, that he theory had been advanced that persons who had reason to be jealous of the relations of the minister and Mrs. Mills had hired gunmen to do the actual slaying.

SHE TALKS TO REPORTERS. . After refusing for two days to see reporters who sought details of her statement to the authorities and turn-
